

“Gram”

Reflection:

Meet my Grandma Lula. She’s 92 years old. When I asked her if I could photograph her for the photo contest “Age is a Work of Art”, she said to me... Do you think I qualify? I laughed and said Yes Grandma, you do. I spend my Sunday afternoons with this wonderful lady. She is so beautiful and special to me. I’m so blessed to have her in my life. She has such wisdom; my favorite from her is “If you have a roof over your head, food on the table and something to wear... what more do you need? She truly is a work of Art. I love you Gram!
